Each full page print is reproduced in approximately 8.5 x 11 format. Together they show Americans of all ages working and playing, at prayer and in meetings, in times of stress and in times of triumph. Clear and detailed commentaries on each of the paintings show the reader the stylistic changes that took place in Rockwell's art decade by decade; he also helps us read the paintings so we see details, personalities and historical changes which are so easy to miss in works of art that we know so well. A beautiful nostalgia gift which is also wonderful for personal reference.
