You'd think it's the same story of husband and wife getting at each other after the former finds out the latter has done him wrong, but it's not. It's a story about Rob and Lori. It's a story about a marriage that could've been perfect save for one tiny detail.

It is said that fires start from little sparks...

Lori has always had Rob in her heart since they started seeing each other in high school. And although they are like oil and water, Rob and Lori have always gravitated around each other. Rob keeps seeing other women but he ends up with the same person-- Lori.

But what seems like a constant push and pull finally gets a conclusion when Rob finds this tiny detail about Lori, and just like that, the cog and gears stop rotating.

What is this that triggered the demise of their relationship? Is this going to be one of those cool downs again? Find out by grabbing Just Plain Bob's newest addition to his Erotica stories!
