LIAISONS is an innovative beginning-level French program firmly grounded in principles of communicative language teaching and research in second language acquisition. Components of the program are carefully linked together, showing students how they can make connections with their classmates, their instructor, their community, and the French-speaking world. With an engaging mystery film shot on location in Montreal, Quebec, and Paris, the program provides a rich array of communicative activities designed to stimulate interaction inside and outside the classroom. The underlying pedagogical framework in LIAISONS asks students to first discover new vocabulary and grammar through different mediums, then connect form and meaning through a set of confidence-building activities, and finally, actively create language.

Matthew Gregg:

As a college student exactly feel bored to be able to reading. If their teacher asked them to go to the library in order to make summary for some publication, they are complained. Just little students that has reading's internal or real their interest. They just do what the instructor want, like asked to go to the library. They go to presently there but nothing reading very seriously. Any students feel that looking at is not important, boring along with can't see colorful pics on there. Yeah, it is to be complicated. Book is very important for yourself. As we know that on this period of time, many ways to get whatever we want. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country. So , this Liaisons: An Introduction to French, Enhanced (World Languages) can make you sense more interested to read.
