"His hands began to explore my body with a ferocity I could only attribute to a wild animal. His nails scraped against my skin, leaving red marks tinged with crimson as they broke the skin."

Tiffany's dream man is sitting across the table from her, his icy blue eyes staring straight into her soul as she sips her daiquiri. Her sorority sisters wouldn't approve of him, but she can't stop thinking about the way his body moves with a feral grace, the way it would move on top of her while she moaned in ecstasy.

But how will Tiffany feel when he tells her his secret need for a submissive woman? Can she give herself to a man who's very essence exudes pleasures but who's words threaten pain? Will her body and mind be able to bear his wrath as he punishes her disobedience with pleasure... over and over again until she begs him to stop? What will she do when he refuses?

Will she be able to give herself over to the training of her body and mind so that she can be exactly what her new perfect man wants and needs so that she'll escape punishment?
