Praise for Underwood, Scotch, and Wry:

"Hooks you from the start. The writing is witty, dry and sarcastic it's a great change of pace."

"What a fun read. Perfect light reading. I have not had so much fun reading a book in a long time"

"Delightfully snarky sense of humor"

Underwood, Scotch, and Wry is the story of Arthur Byrne, a Luddite literature professor who likes to drink, loathes to follow the rules, and makes no bones about his disdain for...well...everything. The dean of Beckerston College and the head of his department want him out and they have the perfect plan...make him teach Social Media 301.

Watch as Arthur and the dean engage in a angst filled battle to end (or save) his job. This humorous fiction will keep you turning the pages. If you like social media, blogging, and mockery, you'll enjoy my first satire novel Underwood, Scotch, and Wry.
