Divorce is one of the most traumatic events a person can experience. The emotional roller coaster can be unbearable. "It Was Good...Until It Wasn't" is 60 quotes varying from inspiration, to support, understanding, and even sarcasm - along with personal notes from the author. Written from the moment the author decided to leave her husband, until just a few days before her divorce was final, it covers the contradictory thoughts and emotions she went through and how she chose to handle them. The lessons learned along the way are equally beneficial to both women and men, those ending an unmarried relationship, and even newlyweds who want to avoid divorce.
