No Time For Mourning Roy Peters

Two young pilots, fresh from flying training, are thrown into the battle against the mighty German Luftwaffe that is determined to bring Britain to its knees. In the thick of the combat, the pilots of 91 Squadron must quickly learn to fight - or die.

Both the maintenance crews' who work unceasingly to keep the aircraft serviceable, and the pilots weary after three months of unending battle in the skies, must work together to beat back wave upon wave of attackers who are determined to destroy them.
