“We’re going to live here together in sin and do all manner of perverse things that the church disagrees with, aren’t we Margaret?”

Lady Margaret Hallifax ran away from her arranged marriage to The Duke of Blackshire and into the arms of the handsome young Baron Strapmore. Inside his London manor she enjoys more of the Baron's scandalous perversions, and the passion between them grows. Will the expectations of polite society tear them apart, or will these two lovers forge a life together, even if it means sullyng Margaret's reputation?

This 10,000 word novella is a continuation of the story told in part one, The Baron's Little Secret, though it is a standalone story. You don't need to read part one to enjoy this tale.
