A Fine Balance (Hardcover) (Chinese Edition) Rohinton Mistry

With the background of India, 1975, when India was facing disorders, corrupted government, poor conditions of general people, continuing conflicts. In a coastal city, a beautiful widow who refused to marry again and made a tough living by herself, a young boy coming from mountain who could not melt in the urban life, an uncle and a nephew who survived from a murder in a caste conflict, they gathered to one place carrying respective past. From strangers to neighbors, from suspension to peaceful relations, they fostered emotions like a family in suffocative adversities. Every time some light came into their life, wrong choice and cruel destiny kept destroying their dreams.
