In the days before the start of the French Revolution, Amelia finds herself caught between two men. One, a breadmaker's son, she loves for his heart and his gentle way. One, the son of the mayor, she can not escape no matter how hard she tries.

The struggle between classes sets the backdrop for the choice Amelia must make. The elite, or the commoner. She prays that her choice will be easy to see. At the same time, her actions might just light the kindling tempers of revolution about to sweep across France...
